

2007 Bulletin of Reports
Delaware-Maryland Synod

CONFERENCES

HARFORD CONFERENCE

The pastors of the conference met four times in the past year, including a meeting with lay delegates to elect a new dean. Michael Bareham, DCE and Music Director at St. Paul, Aberdeen left to go to Pennsylvania. Two churches, Trinity, Joppa, and St. Paul, Aberdeen, are seeking an additional pastor, with Good Shepherd also studying its leadership needs. Pastors Paige and Eric Evers had a baby daughter adding joy, blessing and complexity to their ministry. Holy Communion in Fallston had a fire in June which caused $400,000 damage to their Sunday School wing. All is well now thanks to insurance and a good rebuilding committee. The conference is preparing for a major influx of new residents because of expansion at Aberdeen Proving Grounds.

The Rev. John K. Burk, dean